Speak in Spanish NYC
New York, NY

To whom it may concern,

We have been working with Speak in Spanish NYC since May 2009. We first found our Spanish tutor from Speak in Spanish through an extensive Internet search and multiple rounds of in-person interviews. Upon meeting her, we knew that her method of teaching, work materials and enthusiastic personality were the right combinations for our learning needs. She offered all the elements we were looking for, whereas other tutors were lacking in several areas.

Working for a Spanish-based global media agency, it is extremely beneficial for us to speak Spanish with our overseas colleagues. Eager to begin, our teacher was the perfect choice for us. As a native Spanish speaker, she is passionate about her profession and easily facilitates an encouraging learning environment.

Each week, our tutor comes into our office for a private 1.5 hour lesson. She's incredibly flexible with our ever-changing schedule. The lessons are planned well in advance and progress at a natural pace, combining reading, speaking, repetition, writing and partner work. Homework is not mandatory but it does help the progression of the class.

With her friendly personality, focused lesson plans and excellent knowledge of both the Spanish and English languages, we highly recommend Speak in Spanish NYC to anyone who wants to start – or continue – their Spanish education.

Yours sincerely,
Theresa Nasi and Amanda Crowley MPG, Global Network Development
